I'm a Portuguese Graphic Designer living in Barcelos, a city near Braga in Portugal. But I intend to work all over the world. I'm passionate about graphic design and that allowed me to know the world of art, design and acquire theoretical and practical knowledge. I developed graphic and audiovisual skills that today allow me to have other perspectives and approaches to the problems I face in my professional path. As a complement to my knowledge, I decided to attend a post-graduation course in Digital Marketing.
